

Dear Mrs. Evgenia Mikhailova, Interim Rector,

I would like to address Northeast Federal University named after M.K. Ammosov as a leading institute. Your work has been highly appreciated in the scientific progress and vital part in the ongoing researches and development.

NORDSCI Conference is a leading conference in the field of Social Sciences and industry-defining event for collaboration, innovation and scientific work. It has been established as a platform, covering topics on how today's trends can be incorporated into scientific practices to advance not only researcher's personal development, but the bottom line of Northeast Federal University named after M.K. Ammosov. Our participants have the opportunity to exchange knowledge, to see how researchers from other institutes are tackling challenges similar to the ones your organization faces.

This year NORDSCI Conference will be held between 19–23 August, in Novotel, Athens, Greece. In the previous year, NORDSCI Conference had representative scientist from the Northeast Federal University named after M.K. Ammosov and we would be glad to expand the collaboration and the work between NORDSCI Scientific Society and your organization.

Top 5 benefits of attending NORDSCI Conference:

1. NORDSCI Conference on Social Sciences will have four days of Oral sessions, Poster presentations, Workshops sessions and Panel discussions.
2. Conference proceedings have ISBN, ISSN, e-ISSN. NORDSCI assign unique DOI number for each accepted paper.
3. Lecturer's second paper is free of charge for all participants and for the distant forms of participation is at complimentary price. NORDSCI Proceedings are double blind peer-reviewed by two members of the Scientific Committee. All accepted papers have gone through the process and each participant can submit up to 5 papers.
4. Conference proceedings are evaluated and submitted for indexation to Clarivate Analytics (former Thomson Reuters, ISI Web of Science), Mendeley, CiteULike, Google Scholar, Citavi, SCRIBD and more. NORDSCI is voting member of Crossref.

5. Researchers from your organization will have the opportunity to learn, engage and develop during the conference days. They will have networking opportunities, to make new connections with peers in their fields of work.

I would like to inform you that Northeast Federal University named after M.K. Ammosov would receive a digital copy of full conference papers with all included papers for your university library. You can be sent a printed copy of the book upon request to conference's organizers.

We hope you will embrace the NORDSCI ideology and we will continue our collaboration on higher level.

Sincerely yours,

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Maria Marikina
