

Course/program title: Master's program “Strategic Management”

Main goals and topics of the course/program:

“Strategic Management” Master’s program aims to develop students’ abilities for effective interaction in the process of making the important decisions for development of organisations and for ensuring their competitiveness in a rapidly changing environment. Students focus on the international aspects of management, activities and operations in an international environment, and cross-cultural cooperation. The program provides a learning environment for international students based on the selection of courses that reflect the specifics of management and economic development in Russia, and on the opportunities for formation of individual curriculum.

Name of the department/institution offering the course:

Department of Economics and Production Management
Institute of Finances and Economics

Type of training

Individual skills and ability to work effectively in a team are developed with the use of modern educational technologies during the training. Students carry out research projects and gain experience of strategic development on the examples of various companies and organizations.

Language of instruction

Teaching in English allows to use the latest foreign textbooks and informational resources, to study modern trends in the development of business and management field.

Duration and workload of program

2 years, each year = 60 ECTS Credits
In total = 120 ECTS Credits

Name of lecturer/supervisor:

Chiryayeva G. Nataliya, Head, Candidate of Economic Sciences, Associate professor

Contacts of lecturer/supervisor:

phone(fax): +7 (4112) 49-69-03, email: kafedramm@mail.ru

Admission

International relations office – international@s-vfu.ru
<http://s-vfu.ru/guest/en/admission.php> - ONLINE admission